

Quarantine / Isolation Food Options

As it is imperative you do not leave your flat under any circumstances during your isolation period (unless you are going to attend a test centre for a COVID-19 test), you may need to order your food online. Below is a list of options for you to consider.

SUPERMARKET DELIVERIES

If you are in quarantine or isolating, you can order food through Morrison's Doorstep Delivery service by calling 0345 611 6111 and selecting option 5 to place an order from a list of essential items. The following supermarkets also offer deliveries:

ASDA: <https://groceries.asda.com/>

Sainsbury's: www.sainsburys.co.uk

Tesco: <https://www.tesco.com/groceries/>

Ocado: <https://www.ocado.com/webshop/startWebshop.do>

Iceland: <https://www.iceland.co.uk/book-delivery>

RECIPE BOXES

You can order recipe boxes, which include all ingredients and recipe cards, from the following outlets:

Gousto: www.gousto.co.uk

Hello Fresh: www.hellofresh.co.uk

TAKEAWAY

The following delivery options operate within High Wycombe and Uxbridge:

Uber Eats: <https://www.ubereats.com/gb>

Just Eat: <https://www.just-eat.co.uk/>

NHS VOLUNTEER RESPONDERS

You can rely on the NHS Volunteer Responders to help collect shopping and medication. Please call 0808 196 3646 (8am to 8pm) to arrange volunteer support.

FOODBANK

If you are finding it difficult to arrange a delivery, please contact the Student Centre via student.centre@bucks.ac.uk who can offer short-term, emergency assistance through our Buckinghamshire New University Foodbank.

Please note, Foodbank options are limited, and we respectfully ask that you attempt to arrange a delivery using the links above prior to contacting the Student Centre.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Supermarkets will NOT call international mobile numbers. When placing your order, please provide the number of your Halls:

Brook Street - 01494 605040

Hughenden - 01494 603180
