

BA (Hons) SFX Props and Modelmaking.

Additional Course Costs

There are costs associated with all studies, additional to the tuition fee, which require consideration, when planning and budgeting for expenditure. Costs are indicative and for the total length of the course shown unless otherwise stated and will increase with inflation; depending on the programme they may include equipment, printing, project materials, study trips, placement activities and/or other security checks.

Additional course costs for BA (Hons) SFX Props and Modelmaking are outlined below:

Books and other Texts

Students will be required to purchase texts and journals to support their study programme. The minimum, average cost of books for students studying on a degree course is assumed as £150 per year.

Printing

We recommend a minimum budget of £50 per year for basic printing and photocopying costs, for example, when developing your critical sketchbooks and collating research material. Printing for practical work (for example, photographic paper and prints, screen printing etc.) will incur additional costs and is dependent on the chosen media and quantity.

Materials

Depending on what mediums you end up using as part of your modelmaking practice, it is worth budgeting for material costs. It is advised that students budget £250-350 a year depending on choice of purchases in terms of supplies and materials.

Equipment's

All students are required to purchase a basic toolbox containing hand tools and it is advised to budget £100 to 150. Wacom Tablet £50 to £80 and an optional additional cost can include laptops £600 - £1500 depending upon model and specification, which some students find useful, as well as investing in a mid-range DSLR £250 to £450 for the documentation of your work.

Study Trips

Compulsory study tours and trips will be up to £100 per year with optional trips estimated up to £400. Optional study trips to Europe will cost £250 - £400, and international trips could cost £600-£800 depending on location and duration.

In year or end of year exhibitions and projects

This course requires exhibitions and major projects so additional costs will be incurred. These costs can be discussed in detail with your course teams and some will be linked to a professional skills element of the course where organised fundraising for such activities may be included. Additionally, there may be an optional summer exhibition organised externally at the end of your studies for which you will need to contribute £200 to £400 depending on the scale of the exhibition.

Graduation

Graduation costs per student are estimated at £100 to £200 total. This is an optional cost for all students, as attending graduation is not a requirement in order to have a degree conferred.
