

© Loading...

*The River Wye
High Wycombe*

PROUD CHAIR MAKERS
SINCE THE 1750s.

Welcome!
Wondering where to visit?
We've got you.

Chair museum - Priory Ave, HP13 6PX

A beautiful display of High Wycombe's chair-making history, dating as far back as the 1700's. Free entry!

Hellfire caves - Church Ln, HP14 3AH

Tunnels built in the 18th century that lead you under the Chiltern hills - a brilliant day out for any and all visitors. Side by side with a variety of cafe's, parks and even a mausoleum!

Swan Theatre - St Mart St, HP11 2XE

Fancy a more chilled adventure? The Swan Theatre is the place for you. Renowned in the local area for its encapsulating performances, it's the perfect place for a relaxed day out.

National trust Hughenden - HP14 4LA

A fulfilling day out with numerous activities. WWII history, Italiante-style gardens, a play area and much more, there's something for the whole family. Highly recommended.

